Pro Video Audio Productions offers several alternatives for sheltering your event. A light weight genie tower roof provides shelter from sun and light rain for the people underneath.

The Genie roof system allows set-up in challenging situations such as uneven fields and over steps. The top is either a light canvas or vinyl depending on need. The front and back truss of the roof provide a place to hang some degree of lighting and banners.

This light weight roofing system provides a cost effective option for any size event. Pro Video Audio Productions can provide multiple roofs of varies sizes for your event.
